The Child's Lesson.

CHRIST is the Truth. Christ is the Light. Christ is my Way. Christ is my Life. Christ is my Saviour. Christ is my hope of Glory. Christ is my Redeemer. Christ is my Rock. Christ is the Door. Christ is my King, and Lord of Lords. Christ is the Corner-stone. Christ is the Lamb of God that takes away my Sin.

Christ is the Power of God. Christ is my Wisdom. Christ is my Righteousness. Christ is my Sanctification. Christ is my Justification. Christ is the Seed. Christ is the Resurrection.

Christ destroyeth the Devil and his Works, which leadeth Man and Woman from God; and so Christ is the Way to God again.

Sarah was a good Woman.

Jezebel was a bad Woman, who killed the Just, and turned against the Lord's Prophets, with her witches.

red head and painted face, peeping out of the window.

Christ I must feel within me, who is my Life and my Light, and the Truth; and that is God that shews eth me my thoughts and imaginations of my heart; and that is the Lord God that doth search my heart.

It is the Spirit of truth that doth lead into all Truth.

It is the Spirit of Truth that reproves the world of Sin.

And that is the good Spirit which reproves the bad and its Works.

And the Light manifesteth and reproveth; and that which doth make manifest and reprove is the Light.

And that which giveth the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God, in the Face of Jesus Christ is the Light which shineth in the heart.

And that which may be known of God is manifest within, which God hath shewn unto you; that is that which shews you Sin and Evil.

The Gospel is the Power of God.

The Truth of Christ is the Power of God, which reacheth from the

Eter-

State of Adam and Eve in the Fall, in that Power is the Glorying, and Everlasting Glorying. And this is above the Fleshly Glorying of Adam and Eve in the Fall with his Sons and Daughters.

The Church is in God the Father of Christ, and not a Steeple-house; and that is the Spirit that mortifies from my Sin.

And they that are led by the Spirit of God are the Sons of God; and that is the Spirit of God, which doth instruct me in God's ways, which are good, and that is the bad Spirit which troubles into bad ways.

And if I be a Child of God, I must not grieve him, but must be meek, and sober, and gentle, and loving and quiet, righteous and humble and live in the Fear of God, and live godly, and not Lye, nor do any wrong to any one.

So if I be wild, froward, wicked, heady, high-minded, wilful, stubborn, proud, envious, discontent, fearful, unrighteous, ungodly, and lye, and, do not the Truth, and fear not God, such God turneth into Hell, that grieveth him.

In

In the beginning was the Word.
Since the beginning were the Words; and here the beginning was Babel; which is the beginning of Tongues, which is the perfect Original, but the Saints Original is the Word before Babel was, and that is the Original and Mother Tongue, and not the Tongues that began at Babel.

And it was the second Adam gave Blood, to purchase me out of the state of Adam and Eve in the fall to set me in the state that he was in before he fell, to that which is a glorified state, out of the curse here, and not only to the blessed state that Adam and Eve were in before they fell; but to Christ that never fell, to his Stature.

A Child being taken from the Image of God, he hath not peace.

A Child bring in the Image of God, he hath Peace.

A Child being taken from the holiness, he doth not see God; but being in the holiness he doth see God.

And the Image of God is Rightteousness and true Holiness.

In

In six Days the Lord made the Heavens and the Earth, and all things therein; and the sixth made Man and Woman, and gave them Dominion over the Works of his Hands.

Christ is my Foundation.

And Christ is the first and the last.

And Christ is a quickning Spirit.

Abel was a good Man.

Cain was a bad man, full of Envy and Wrath, and killed his Brother about Religion.

Isaac was a good Man.

Ishmael was a wild Worker and a scoffing Archer, and turned into the Wilderness.

Jacob was a good man; Esau was a prophane man (who turned against Jacob) who bore the Sword.

The Spirit of Truth is my Leader into all Truth, and sheweth me things to come.

And the Power of God is my Keeper from Sin and Evil.

And the Worship of God is in the Spirit and in the Truth.

bling. And when Daniel saw a Vision, great quaking fell upon the men that were with him: And Habakkuk his Belly trembled, and his Lips quivered, Hab. 3. 16.

Sch. Sure those that scoffingly call the true Christians Quakers, never read these Scrip- tures; for they prove very plain, that there were Quakers in the Primitive times: But why do the people called Quakers say. Thee and Thou to a single person? Is that accor- ding to the Scriptures?

Mast. Yes, it is the proper Language to a single person, and according to the Scripture; God said Thee and Thou to A- dam; and Adam said Thou to God; and People say Thee and Thou in their prayers; and it is the Pride in peoples Hearts

Heart that cannot take that Language themselves which they give to God: And God said Thee and Thou to Moses, and Moses said Thee and Thou to God again: Jacob said Thee and Thou to Laban, and Laban said Thee and thou to him again; and Jacob and his Sons said Thee and Thou to each other, Gen. 43. to Chap. 49. And Jeptha, who was a Judge in Israel, did Thee and Thou his daughter, and she did Thee and Thou her Father the Judge again, Judg. 11. And when Daniel and the three Children were before the King, upon examination, they said Thou to the King, and the Caldeans did Thou the King, Dan. 3. And Paul did Thou King Agrippa. And many other Examples there be in Scripture; but these are sufficient. And Thee and Thou in the singular Number, and to be spoken to one, & You or Ye the plural Number, and to be spoken unto more than one.

Sch. I am very well satisfied that Thee and Thou is the proper Language to a single Person, and You to more than one; but the People called Quakers will not put off their Hats, nor bow, nor give flattering Titles to People; what Scripture have they for that?

Mast. With God there is no respect of persons; and James said, if you have pect of persons you commit sin and are convinced of the Law as Transgressors; and in Job, Elihu said, Let me not, I pray you, accept any mans person, neither let me give flattering Titles unto Man; for I know not to give flattering Titles, in so doing my Maker would soon take me away, Job. 32. 21, 22.

Sch. They say the People called Quakers deny the Scriptures.

Mast. No, they own the Scriptures more then any People, for they walk in the Light of Christ Jesus, and by following him do witness the Scriptures fulfilled in them? and People that live in sin, and that are guided by the evil Spirit, they are contrary to the Scriptures, and it is a Book sealed to them; and they who hate to be reformed, have nothing to do to speak of the Saints and holy men of Gods conditions, mentioned in Scripture

Sch. The People called Quakers do not call their Days and Months as others Professors do.

Mast. No, Professors and People are so far degenerated from Truth that they have Lost the very form of sound Words used by the Primitive Christians

Sch. How did the Primitive Saints call their days and months?

Mast.

Mast. God made the World in six Days and rested the seventh Day, and he called the Evening and the Morning the first Day, and the Evening and the Morning the second Day, and the third Day, &c. And Christ rose on the first Day of the Week? and they came to the Sepulcher when the Jews Sabbath was ended, on the first Day of the Week, and upon the first Day of the Week the Disciples met together: And in Ex. 12. 2. This month shall be unto you the beginning of months, it shall be the first Month of the year to you: And in Ex. 16. Moses writeth, the fifteenth day of the second Month, and the Scriptures say, the third Month, and fourth Month, &c

Sch Who invented those Names of Sunday, Monday, &c, and calling the Month March, April, May, &c.

Mast. The old Pagan Saxons in their Idolatry were the first that brought in the names of the Days after that manner, and these called Christians, have retained them to this day. The first Day of the week they worshipped the Idol of the Sun from whence came Sunday? The second Day of the week they worshipped the Moon, from whence came Moonday or Monday.

Monday; the third day they worshipped the Idol of the Planets, which they called Tuisco, from whence came Tuesday; and from the Idol Woden came Wednesday; and from the Idol Thor came Thursday; and from the Idol Friga came Friday; and from the Idol Seatur came Saturday. And the heathen called Mars the God of Battle, and from thence they called the first Month March: And Venus they called the Goddess of Love and beauty, and from thence they called the second Month April; And Maja a heathen goddess called Flora; Flora and Cloris were called the Goddesses of Flowers; Unto Maja the heathen Idolaters used to sacrifice, from thence was the third Month called May; and upon the first day of the same Month they used to keep Floralia Feasts to the two goddesses of Flowers (viz.) Flora and Cloris, and Flora was a Strumpet in Rome, that used on the first day of that Month, to set up a May-Pole before her Door, to entice her Lovers, from whence came May-poles to be first observed: And from the heathens Goddess Juno is the fourth Month called June: And in honour to Julius Cæsar a Roman Enperor, is the fifth Month called July: and the sixth

Month

Month took its Name August, in honour of Augustus Cæsar; and September, October, November and December are called from the Latines, and one Janus a King of Italy, was for his Wisdom pictured with two Faces, whom they honoured as God: and from this name Janus was the eleventh Month called January. And Saturnus, Pluto Februs, were called the Gods of Hell, whom the heathen said, had the rule of the evil Spirits there, and from Pluto Februs, was the twelth Month called February.

Sch. Who have been the ministers and Instructers of these People, that they are erred so from Scripture Example? Let me have some marks and signs by which I may know the Deceivers and false Prophets?

Mast. The marks the Scripture give of Deceivers and false Prophets are these: I shall set them down in short, that thou maist remember them the better.

1. They are such as be [illegible] rule by their Means, Jer. 30. 3[illegible] Mat. 12. 9, 7[illegible]

2. They are such as seek for [illegible] from their Quarters, [illegible]

3. They seek for the Fleece and make a prey upon the People, Ezek. 34. 1, 2, 3

4. They

4. They are such as preach for Hire, and Divine for Money. Mic. 3. 11.

5. They cry peace so long as People put into their Mouthes; but when any come to see them to be Deceivers, and cannot put into their Mouths, nor give them Gifts, then they prepare War against them Mic. 3. 5. Hos. 6. 9.

6. They run when the Lord never sent them, and prophesie Lies in his name, Jer. 14. 14.

7. They stand praying in the Synagogues: They love the uppermost Rooms at Feasts, and the chief Seats in the Synagogues' and love Greeting in the Markets, and to be called of men Master, and they make them broad phylacteries on their Garments, that they may be taken notice of; for they do that they do to be seen of men, and are proud and covetous, and they came of Cain's Stock, for they are full of Envy, and are in Balaam's way, who was erred from the Spirit of God, and received the Wages of Unrighteousness, and so do they, 2 Peter 2. Jude 11.

8. They are such as sprinkle Infants, for which they have no rule in Scripture; and tell people it is an Ordinance of Christ; when it is but one of their own

Inventions

Invention, and so are Lyars and deceivers.

9. They tell people they shall never be free from sin while they live here.

10. They are made ministers by the Will of man, and men uphold them. If thou meetest with them and seest those Fruits brought forth by them, then beware of them; for they have got on sheeps Cloathing, but inwardly they are ravening Wolves.

Sch. How may I know the true Ministers? Mast. I may give thee some marks how to know them.

1. The true Ministers of Christ, as they have received the Gift of God freely, so they Minister freely from the same, as good Stewards of the manifold Grace of God, and they do unto all Men as they would have all men do unto them.

2. They do not Strive for Mastership, like the false Prophets, but are gentle unto all men, and apt to teach, patient in meekness, instructing those that oppose themselves, 2 Tim. 2. that so they may be edified.

3. The true Ministers have no mans person in admiration, because of advantage, but are men of sorrows, despised and and rejected of men, as Christ was; an they are not made ministers by the Wi of man, but by Christ Jesus, and are blame less as the Stewards of God, not self-wi led, nor soon angry, nor given to Win no Strikers, nor greedy of filthy Lucr

Tit. 2. 7

4. And the true Ministers work wa for the perfecting of the Saints, for th edifying of the Body of Christ; and th true Ministers were not bred up seve years at the Colledges, as the deceiver are now; but the Lord called Tradesme to be ministers; Moses was a Keeper o Sheep, and Jacob and David were Keep ers of Sheep, and Elisha was a Plough man, and Amos a Herdsman, and Pet and John Fisher-men, and Paul a Tent maker.

Sch. The People called Quakers are mock ed, hated, persecuted, and imprisoned; wa so with the People of God in former Ages first. The People of God were i all Ages [illegible] persecuted, imprisoned [illegible] the Prophet wa
[illegible] Bald-head. And th Lord sent his Messengers, rising up betimes, and sending, because he had compassion on his People; but they mocke th

the messengers of God, and despised his Words, and misused his Prophets, wherefore the Wrath of the Lord was against them, 2 Chron. 36. 15. And David was despised of the people, they laughed him to scorn, they shot out their Lips, and shaked their Heads at him: And in Psal. 69. 12. David said, Sack-cloth is my Garment and I am become a Proverb to them, and I am the Song of the Drunkard. And Jer. 20. 7. Jeremiah said, I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. And thou maist read before how he was persecuted, and put in the Dungeon. And David said, The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me, and they have laid a Snare for me. And Job said, I am as one mocked of his Neighbour; and said, The just and upright man is laughed to scorn. Job 12, 4. and said, now I am their Song; yea I am their By-word, they abhor me, and spare not to spit in my Face. And in Acts thou mayst read how Herod the King stretcht forth his hand [illegible] some of the Church of Christ; and [illegible] and imprisoned Peter, and [illegible] and Silas had their Cloaths torn off, and after they had received many stripes, they cast them into prison, and a strict charge was given to the Goaler to keep them safely,

who thrust them into the inner Prison, a made their Feet fast in the Stockes: a above forty of the Jews bound themsely under a curse, that they would neither e nor drink till they had killed Paul. And Act. 22. when Paul spake to the peop some of them cried, away with such a F low from the Earth; for it is not fit that should live. And in Acts 24. For we ha found this man a pestilent Fellow, and moover of Sedition, and a Ring-leader of t Sect of the Nazarens: And Christ himsel was derided by the Pharisees, Luke 1
And Paul said, Whosoever will live Godly Christ Jesus, must suffer Persecution, for it through many Tribulation we must enter i to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Proverbs, which are short wise Sentence very necessary for Children to Read an Learn.

Chas[illegible] thy Son whilst there is hop and let not thy Soule spare for his cr [illegible]. Prov. 19.

He that spareth his Rod hateth his Son but he that loveth him chasteneth him b times.

Ever

Every Child is known by his doing, whether his Work be pure, and whether it be right, Prov. 20. 11.

Fooliſhneſs is bound in the heart of a Child, but the Rod of Correction ſhall drive it far from him.

With-hold not Correction from thy Child, for if thou beateſt him with the Rod he ſhall not die.

The Father of the Righteous ſhall greatly rejoyce; and he that begetteth a wiſe Child ſhall have joy of him.

Better is a Poor and wiſe Child than an old and fooliſh King, who will no more be admoniſhed.

Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble, is like a broken Tooth, and a Foot out of joynt.

A wiſe Son maketh a glad Father, but a fooliſh Son is the heavineſs of his Mother.

Apply thy Heart to Inſtruction, and thine Ears to the words of Knowledge.

Whoſo loveth Inſtruction, loveth Knowledge; but he that hateth Reproof is brutiſh.

He is in the way to Life that keepeth Inſtruction

Instruction; but he that refuseth Reproof erreth.

The Commandment is a Lamp, and the Law is Light, and Reproofs of Instruction are the ways of Life.

He that refuseth Instruction, despiseth his own Soul; but he that heareth Reproof geteth Understanding.

A proud Look and a lying Tongue the Lord hateth, Prov. 6. 17.

Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get Wisdom; and with all thy getting get Understanding.

Walk in the way of good men, and keep the Paths of the Righteous, Prov. 2. 20.

Directions to Read and Spell truly.

OBserve, that the first Letter of all proper Names and beginning of Sentences are to be great Letters.

A Diphthong is the sounding of any two or more Vowels together, without any Consonant between them; they be commonly used in words of one Syllable, there are nine Diphthongs;

ai,

ai, or ay, as in maid, may.
au, or aw, as Land, Law.
ea, as earth.
ee, as feed ei, as heir.
eu, or ew, as feud, grew.
oi, or oy, as coi, boy, joy.
oo, as good.
ou, or ow, as loud, low.

A consonant is a Letter that maketh a sound with a Vowel.

A Syllable is a perfect sound, made sometimes of Vowels only, and sometimes of Vowels and Consonants; no Syllable hath above eight Letters in it, as Strength; neither hath any Word above seven Syllables in the English Tongue, as Re-con-ci-li-a-ti-on.

Observe how many Vowels there are in a Word so many Syllables it hath in it, as in Re-con-ci-li-a-ti-on except the Word end in e or es, as in Love and James; or if there be a Diphthong in it, as in may or your; after q is always [illegible] with another Vowel, as in quick.

After

After true Spelling, these seven Points are to be Observed in Reading, for keeping the Sence.

(,) A Comma is a little stop or breathing; as Behold O Lord,

(;) A Semi-colon is a longer stop or breathing; as, for I am in distress;

(:) A Colon is commonly put in the middle of a Sentence; as, my Bowels are troubled: my Heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled.

(.) A Period is a full stop, and is put after a full Sentence; as, Abrod the Sword, bereaveth, at home there is a Dearth.

( ) A Parenthesis is when some Words may be left out, and yet the sentence perfect; as, For I know that in me (that is, in my Flesh) dwelleth no good Thing——— for his Letters (say they) are weighty and powerfull, &c.

(?) An Interrogation is put always after a Question asked; as, Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? or, were you baptized in the Name of Paul?

(!) An Admiration is a Note of Wondering or crying out: as, O the depth of the

Riches both of the Wisdom and Knowdg of God! How Unsearchable are his ways nd his judgments past finding out!

Independency (Latin) a not depending upon another, absolutenes, of ones self. But it is commonly taken for that Profession, or Sect of men, who manage all things belonging to Church Discipline within their own Congregation, and allow not of a Dependence on a National Church.

Anabaptists, a sort of Professors of Religion, who it is said, first began in Germany, in the year, 1521. Their chief Principle by which they separate from Independents, and other Professors, is that they do not hold it lawful to sprinkle Children, and call it Baptism; but that they they ought first to be able to give a count of their Faith before they are B tized.

Socinians, a sort of People that deny the Divinity of Christ, first spread by one Faustus Socinus of Siena.

Presbytery, (Latin) signifies Priesthood, Eldership, or Government of the Church by Elders; there is a great People in this Nation go under the Name of Presbyterians, who, when they had power in their hands, were great Persecutors.

Quakers. They are in derision so called by the scorners of this Age: but their proper Name is, Children of the Light; and though they are accounted a Sect of Hereticks newly sprung up, by some who have rashly passed Judgment upon them, yet upon a serious and diligent search into theire Principles and Examples, they will appear to be led by a Christian Spirit.

The Golden Number, so called, because it was written in the Kalender with Letters of Gold, right at the day whereon the Moon changeth; and it is the space of 19 Years in which the Moon returneth to the self-same day of the Year of the Sun, and therefore is called the Circle of the Moon, in which the Solstices and Equinoctials return to all one point in the Zodiack.

To find it every Year, add one Year to the year of Christ, then divide the whole by 16, and that which rests is the Golden Number for that Year, if there be no Surplusage, it is then 19.

Note, that the Golden Number and Dominical Letter doth change every year the first day of the eleventh Month, and the Epact the first day of the first Month for ever; and the year always begins the twenty-fifth of the first Month.
